A warm hello from the PlantWild team.

With the arrival of February, Snowdrop season is well underway. Spring bulbs are a great way to attract early pollinators to the garden and encouraging insects all year round will really help to develop a greater range of wildlife to your outdoor space.

Pre order your Wild garlic in our 1 litre pots which are planted with 3 x rhizomes per pot. Ready rooted and shooted once shipped, all you do is transfer the whole pot to your chosen spot and plant the Wild garlic directly outdoors.

Order now & we will let you know in March when your order is ready.

Planting tip:

Wild garlic enjoys part shade, so is great in an outdoor container which can be positioned in the ideal location. The roots prefer to be kept damp but not waterlogged, whereas the leaf growth enjoys some sun, but dappled shade is preferable.

Alternatively, plant along a woodland edge, or under a hedgerow ,,, where it will spread over time given the right conditions.

News from the nursery:

The retail nursery reopens on Friday 1st March 2024

Our nursery is located in a peaceful, rural location, with views over the Somerset countryside.

During our open season March - October visit us to choose your wildflowers from our display area. We also have our wonderful range of Herbaceous perennials and Ornamental grasses which are a great complement to wildflowers in the garden. Plant together for a naturalistic scheme to help create a wildlife habitat and increase the biodiversity of your garden too.

The PlantWild Wildflowers online store continues to be open for orders all year round, for delivery throughout the UK, or opt to collect an online order from the nursery.

Continuing this season is our little coffee corner. Buy a hot drink and a cookie to take with you as you browse, or why not sit on a picnic bench and enjoy the view!
